

Programs: 2005-2006 Season

Sunday, January 15, 3 p.m.

“The Unlikely Trio”
Dotian Levalier (harp)
William Wielgus (oboe)
Carole Bean (flute)

This will be a rare chance to enjoy three accomplished members of the National Symphony Orchestra play together, weaving delightful tunes.

At the home of Bob & Leigh Gonzales: 6306 Crosswoods Circle

Sunday, February 26, 3 p.m.

Eric Himy (piano)

Described by The New York Times as “flawless, elegant and brilliant,” the Lake Barcroft resident pianist will give us a special preview of his upcoming concert tour.

At the home of Will & Anne O’Neil:
6404 Lakeview Drive

If you would like to host a future concert, please let us know. We would also like to know about outstanding performers who would be willing to share their talent with Lake Barcroft music lovers.

Sunday, October 30, 3 p.m.

“Marcolivia”
Marc Ramirez (violin & viola)
Olivia Hajioff (violin)

The acclaimed duo will dazzle you with exquisite technique and perfect harmony. The program will include Bartok, Mozart, Prokofiev and Paganini.

At the home of Rodney & Kay Frame: 6408 Lakeview Drive

Sunday, December 4, 3 p.m.

“St. Petersburg Trio”
Svetlana Nikonova (domra)
Vladimir Zakharevitch (accordion)
Andrei Saveliev (Balalaika)

Begin the Holiday season with an eclectic assortment of exotic tunes and classic repertoire. The trio will be joined by a Russian dancer in costume.

At the home of Mary Anne Lecos: 6311 Beachway Drive