Event Wrap-up

Sandy Chiong and Jerry Ellig hosted us for a fun evening to celebrate Oktoberfest on October 19th. We fired up the grill and cooked wieners, knockwurst, and bratwurst that Paul Imse prepared the Wisconsin way, boiled in beer and onions. Hhhmmm, good!

We also elected officers for the 2003 year. We want to thank all of those who have volunteered their time to make this an organization that everyone can appreciate. The list of the new year's officers is below.

Thanks, Sandy and Jerry, for inviting us in to your home. We enjoyed it and hope you will invite us back soon!

Holiday Gift Exchange

Mark your calendars for our Holiday Gift Exchange on December 14th at the home of Diane and Seth Davidson. Like our annual barge party, this is an event not to be missed. We always have a large turn-out of holiday revelers who are full of fun and mischief. What better way to ring in the holiday season than with your Barcroft friends and neighbors for this non-traditional gift exchange. Details will follow in our December newsletter.

It's your Club - What do you want to do?

It's a new year and almost time to plan the events for 2003. In the past two years, we have expanded both the Barge party and the Christmas party. We have gone out to dinner, celebrated St. Patrick' Day and Oktoberfest, brewed beer and now we will go bowling. Quite a load of activities, but the past is the past. Now we are looking for ideas for Newcomers' events in the year 2003 (and homes to host them!).

We would like to hear from some of the Newcomers who do not normally attend the events to let us know what to plan to bring you out. There is no such thing as a bad suggestion, so please contact us and let us know what will interest you. (For our regular participants, let us know your suggestions, also!) Contact the Newcomers' club at lbnewcomers@yahoo.com or speak to a board member directly with your ideas.

We would also like to have some new volunteer homes to host these events in 2003. Just let us know you are interested.
