Fireworks Organizational Meeting

Date: Wednesday, June 9, 2004
Place: The home of Sue and Amon Nixon
3408 Greentree Drive
Time: 7:00 PM
R.S.V.P.: anixon@verizon.net or call Amon Nixon at 575-9404

Summer is upon us, and in Lake Barcroft one of the most anticipated events is the July 4th Fireworks display.

A unique feature of the Lake Barcroft July 4th fireworks display is that it is members of our community who volunteer to plan and execute this event. We have lots of tasks and can utilize the time and skills of anyone that wishes to participate.

In preparation, a planning meeting will be held this Wednesday to recruit volunteers for fireworks crews. If you are handy with hand tools and/or garden tools, we can use your skills. For the more adventurous individuals, we also need your help that evening to do the 'behind the scenes' tasks that make this show happen.

And ladies, if you think this is just some guy thing; reconsider. Our past and present volunteers include quite a few of our female lake residents. They have been on both the preparation crews and on the show crews, so don't be afraid to lend your efforts.

Barge Party Organizational Meeting

Lisa Levine has agreed to Chair this year's Newcomers Barge Party, which will be held on September 18th.

Lisa already has a small group of volunteers who will be helping her organize and put on the Barge Party, but there is still more room for anyone else who wants to help.

There will be an organizational meeting for the Barge Party at Lisa's home -- 3502 Stoneybrae -- on Wednesday, June 9th at 7:30 PM. You can contact Lisa at levine@ELAMAIL.COM or call her at work -- 703-516-8363 or home -- 703-642-0904.

Event Wrap Up
Sand Day

Sand Day is a great Lake Barcroft event which was created by young people for young people, and it is run by young people. A couple of years ago, the Newcomers Club began to support this youth activity by holding a weenie roast so that there would be food and drink available for those who came to the event.

This year brought a warm, sunny day, and everyone had a wonderful time. The Newcomers served up more than 100 hot dogs, bratwurst, and veggie dogs, along with chips, soda, juice, water and cookies. As can be seen in these pictures by Bill Wasylyk, Sand Day was a great day.

Joe Franco Wins the Chili Cookoff

More than 60 people gathered to sample 15 chili entries at the Newcomers Club annual Chili Cookoff. A rainy, wintry afternoon was definitely warmed by the hospitality of Corri Goldman and Mike Spivey -- not to mention the heat of the various chilis set off against a host of cornbread recipes.

Joe Franco, of Beachway Dr., took the top honors and received a trophy recognizing his as The Best Chili. Also receiving awards were Pete Sackleh for the hottest chili, Seth Davidson for the sweetest chili, Brenda Poole for the best non-traditional chili, and Jerry Ellig for the most complex chili.
