

“MUSIC ON THE LAKE”

Lake Barcroft House Concert Series Presents

Benjamin Beirs Guitar solo

Benjamin Beirs has been hailed by Fanfare Magazine as representing "the brave new world of classical guitar." Classically trained at the Peabody Conservatory and by guitar masters on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean, Ben is always trying to push the boundaries to modernize the idea of what a classical guitarist should sound like in the 21st century.

Ben last appeared in this series as a part of his duo, Duo Transatlantique. This time he will play a solo program which showcases contemporary classical pieces, including those by Heitor Villa-Lobos, Servio Assad, and himself. The concert will be as beautiful and soothing as the spring blossoms you will see across the Lake! Please join us.
