

“MUSIC ON THE LAKE”

Lake Barcroft House Concert Series Presents

Thomas Tirino

Acclaimed Pianist, known as leading interpreter of Ernesto Lecuoa & other Latin American classical music

A little nostalgia of Cuba, circa 1930, to bid farewell to summer?

We are delighted to present Thomas Tirino, a incomparable interpreter of great Cuban composer Ernesto Lecuona, who gave the world “Malaguena,” “The Breeze and I,” “Always in my Heart” and many more memorable tunes.

Time magazine exclaimed, “Fingers ablaze,” when it reviewed Timiro’s recordings of Lecuona’s piano pieces. Gramophone said, “His cut glass virtuosity and wickedly seductive charm are truly formidable.”

Put on an easy summer dress or Bermuda shorts, come and relax to let this legendary piano virtuoso entertain you with what The New York Times described as “big technique... the right balance of zest and tender lyricism.”
